World Taekwondo President's Message

Dear Taekwondo Family,

World Taekwondo Partnership Taekwondo Program, jointly organized by Taekwondo Promotion Foundation with support of Ministry of Culture, Sports and Tourism is a prestigious global initiative offering advanced Kyorugi and Poomsae training under world-renowned instructors.

Beyond skill development, the program fosters cultural exchange, uniting practitioners worldwide to learn and grow together. This initiative reflects WT's commitment to education, elite training, and international collaboration, inspiring athletes, coaches, and enthusiasts globally.

I wish all the participants joyful stay at Muju Taekwondowon, elevating technical excellence while strengthening the global Taekwondo community with harmony, respect, and growth. Thank you.

Chungwon Choue
President of World Taekwondo

Introduction

The Partnership Taekwondo Program, promoted by World Taekwondo, and organized by Taekwondo Promotion Foundation goes beyond technical training—it serves as a bridge for cultural exchange and global unity in Taekwondo.

By connecting practitioners worldwide, it nurtures mutual respect, shared growth, and a deeper understanding of Taekwondo’s values, ensuring its lasting impact for future generations.

Elite Training

- Learn advanced techniques from top-tier instructors.

Deep Understanding

- Explore Taekwondo’s cultural significance within Korean heritage.

Cultural Immersion

- Experience the rich traditions and history of Korea.

Free Participation

- No attendance fee required.

For program-related inquiries, you can reach out via email at ptp@worldtaekwondo.org.

For general inquiries, participants can visit the official website at www.worldtaekwondo.org or contact WT via email at education@worldtaekwondo.org.

Application and registration procedures are detailed on page 12. Please refer to that section for more information.
